DINING

Gleneagles is Scotland's top destination for fine dining, with a range of restaurants to choose from of which a selection are highlighted below.

Andrew Fairlie, simply the best restaurant in Scotland and the only one in the country to hold two Michelin stars. This exquisite restaurant is a luxurious setting for a meal that will live long in the memory, combining the very best in French and Scottish cooking.

The Strathearn offers classic silver service with a touch of Gleneagles glamour, The Strathearn's traditional walnut gueridon trolleys, silver cloches and butler trays deliver the touch of a bygone era.

The Birnam Brasserie serves French-American dishes using the best local Scottish produce. Gleneagles' newest restaurant, offers all-day dining within an atmospheric and relaxed setting. The Winter Garden and open fire add warmth and a lively buzz, making The Birnam the perfect social hub for relaxed family suppers, long and lazy Sunday brunches and wonderful breakfasts.

For drinks, the American Bar inspired by the roaring 20s, is a stylish bar with exceptional service and cocktails. Sample some of Scotland's best whiskies and single malts at the Century Bar, or relax at Gleneagles' newest bar, Auchterarder 70.

FOR THE KIDS

Children between 2 and 9 can enjoy fun and games in Little Glen. The first two hours are free of charge. Open from 9.00am to 5pm, Little Glen is fully staffed. With bright, fresh colour schemes, different textures and tactile furnishings and an arts and crafts workshop, the space has been intended to stimulate play, interaction and learning.
